WA-KEENEY, KANS., FEBRUARY 25, 1911

32ND YEAR—NUMBER 52

Whitton-Galloway

On Wednesday last at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Galloway, well known and highly esteemed people of our community, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Grace Irene to Charles C. Whitton, of Hill City, Kansas.

As the strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Edith Courtney floated through the rooms, the bridal party took their place in the bay window which had been decorated in smilax for the occasion.

Mr. Fred Whitton, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Ruby Galloway, sister of the bride, filled the place as bridesmaid. Rev. Allison, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke the words which united the two hearts for the remainder of life's journey. The ring ceremony was used. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white mull daintily trimmed in lace and carried white bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Ruby, was also prettily gowned in white and carried white carnations.

The bride is one of our choicest young ladies. From a little girl she has grown up in Trego county honored by old and young alike and is in every way capable of filling the home she will occupy with happiness and will prove a true helpmate and companion to the husband she has chosen.

Mr. Whitton is well and favorably known in Wa-Keeney. He is a young business man and is in every way worthy of the young woman he has chosen for his wife. His many good attributes proclaim him a noble manly man.

After the ceremony, the guests were escorted to the dining room where a bounteous and delicious two course supper was served. The young couple left on the evening train for Denver for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Hill City where Mr. Whitton is engaged in business. The esteem in which these young people are held was shown by the numerous and beautiful presents which they received.

Quite a large number of relatives and friends were present on this happy occasion. The groom's two brothers, Messrs. Robert and Fred Whitton and his sister, Miss Eva Whitton arrived from Hoxie, while Miss Jessie Whitton came from Salina. Miss Harriet Beal, a cousin of the bride, was present from Clayton, Ill.

It is with much pleasure that the World adds congratulations to those of their many friends in wishing this young couple much joy and happiness through life.

Cupid and The Slipper

Last Friday evening the base ball club presented "Cupid and The Slipper," a farcical play with music at the court house. The play was under the direction of Ray Ufford whose ability is well known along these lines the presentation of which reflected credit upon his efforts for it is a long time since Wa-Keeney had an entertainment which gave such good satisfaction. The room was packed to the doors with an appreciative audience. The comedy abounded in humor and droll situations which brought down the house. Miss Edith Courtney who is an accomplished vocalist had charge of the musical part of the program which was most excellent. The parts were well assigned and well taken and indeed the play was such a success that a second presentation will take place on Friday evening, March 3d at the court house. The proceeds amounted to $127 which will be used for the Base Ball Club.

Death of Nexa May Joseph

Neva May Joseph was born September 10, 1895, died February 17, 1911, aged 15 years, five months and seven days. She died of tuberculosis after an illness of seven weeks. We little thought on Christmas, at the Christmas tree where Neva took such a prominent part, that the Master would soon call her to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler has ever yet returned. But after all it may be best that in the sunniest, happiest hour of all its voyage, while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock. For whether in mid sea or among the breakers of the farther shore a wreck must mark at last the end of each and all. We strive in vain to look beyond this vale of tears. We cry aloud and the only answer is the echo to our cry. But in the night of death, hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing. Neva had not passed on life's highway the mile stone that marks the highest point, but weary for a moment she closed her eyes and fell into that dreamless sleep that kisses down her eyelids forever. While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, she passed to that celestial City above where pleasant surprises await the wayfarer from this world of sin and sorrow. Our loss is her gain, our sorrow her happiness.

But earthly hope is gone and now Comes in its place a brighter beam, Leaving upon her snowy brow The impress of a heavenly dream.

That she, when her frail body yields And fades away to mortal eyes, Shall burst through heaven's eternal fields And bloom again in paradise.

The funeral services were held from the residence Sunday, February 19th, conducted by Rev. Terry, after which a large concourse of friends followed the remains to Riverside cemetery where interment took place. —A Friend.

On Tuesday evening Christon Hansen, a Danish violinist, rendered a most interesting program at the court house under the auspices of the Eastern Star. The audience was small, which seems rather unusual inasmuch as an opportunity is not often given in a small place to hear so talented an artist as was Mr. Hansen whether it was a lack of unity between the brethren and the sisters too, we don't know, but we do know that the people that stayed at home missed the best musical treat of the season. Mr. Hansen was assisted by our local male quartette consisting of Messrs. Will and Ray Nelson, Arthur Kirby and Ray Everett. The quartette was paid a very handsome compliment by Mr. Hansen and were in every way deserving of it for the music which they furnished was most excellent and Wa-Keeney is justly proud of these talented young men who possess voices of rare beauty and quality. They were heartily applauded and responded repeatedly to the encores. Their singing added much to the enjoyment of the evening's entertainment.

Wednesday was Washington's birthday and we were glad to see the flag floating from the school house. The birthday of the father of our country should through the coming years as it is now, be observed and patriotism and love of country instilled in the heart of every boy and girl in this broad land. This nation was bought with the price of blood that flowed freely on her altars from the veins of the best men that the sun ever shown upon and such men as Washington and Lincoln are immortal they cannot be forgotten and as the young are taught in each succeeding generation their names will live forever in the heart of our great republic.

Rev. Mumford closed a three weeks' revival last Sunday at the Happy Hollow school house. Twenty-one were converted and a Baptist church organized.

On Friday evening, February 24th, the young men's class of the M. E. Sunday school, entertained the young ladies' class at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. Spencer.

The Trego county declamatory and spelling contest was held last Saturday in the court room. Luvern Henkle won first place in the declamatory contest while Jud Benson, of Ogallah, won first place in the spelling contest and Golda Gorrell second. The Golden Belt Association will be held in Hays Friday, March 3d, and these three young people will represent Trego county at that meeting.

Our high school basket ball team was defeated by the Hays high school basket ball team of Hays last Wednesday afternoon by a score of 20 to 31. The Hays' boys are good players and as our boys know how to be good natured under defeat, the game proved to be a pleasant affair after all, but they are going to do some strong practicing, then Hays look out!

In the teacher's examination held January 27 and 28 there was only one first grade certificate granted and this was secured by Ray Nelson and his many friends are congratulating him upon his success. Those who also secured certificates were Miss Blanche Gorrell, 2nd grade; Miss Maude Kackley, 2nd grade; Mr. George Smee, 2nd grade; Miss Ruby Galloway and Miss May Marcy each a 3d grade.

A man in Ohio recently sought an expert in oil, because he believed that he had struck oil on his land. He brought a sample in a bottle. Evidently he had been in a great hurry and had hastily grabbed the first bottle at hand: for, when the chemist had duly analyzed the sample submitted, he sent the following telegraphic report: "Find no trace of oil. You have struck paregoric."

The Facts About Parlette

Ralph Parlette is the son of a Methodist minister of the Central Ohio conference. He was born near New Dover, Ohio, in 1870. He graduated from the La Rue, Ohio, high school in 1887. Taught school several years. Learned the printer's trade at thirteen. Worked his way through the Ohio Northern University, graduating in 1891.

Began newspaper writing in college. Began lyceum work in 1897. Toured Europe and Russia in 1907. Became editor of Lyceumite and Talent in 1909. He is senior member of printing firm of Parlette & Snyder, at Ada, Ohio. He is field secretary of Ruskin College, Ruskin, Florida; Vice-president of Meredith Band Instrument Co., Marion, Ohio. His permanent address is 150 Michigan Ave., Chicago.

Parlette's platform work is booked entirely by the various lyceum bureaus, no private engagements being made. As his magazine, Lyceumite and Talent, is representative of the entire movement, so no bureau exclusively controls his bookings, but in each state it is understood that some one bureau will handle his engagements.

Parlette is continually preparing new lectures and addresses. But two of his earliest subjects—"The University of Hard Knocks" and "Pockets and Parades"—are probably most popular and most called for. The public has paid more than $15,000 for these two lectures.

"The University of Hard Knocks" is to appear shortly in book form.

Mr. Parlette will lecture to the Teachers of the Golden Belt Educational association which meets at Hays, Friday and Saturday, March 3 and 4. He will lecture Saturday morning, March 4 at 10:30 a. m. His subject will be "The University of Hard Knocks." Every teacher in Trego county should attend this meeting and bring home the banner for Trego county; also hear Parlette, as he is a fine entertainer.

The riddle was this: "If a herring and a half costs a penny and a half how many herrings can you buy for a shilling?" The old fisherman had worked on it for some time. "What did you say the mackerel and a half cost?" he asked, at last. "I didn't say mackerel; I said herring," explained the skipper. "Oh, that's different, said the other. 'I've been figuring on mackerel.'—Everybody's Magazine.

Kansas City Market Report

Kansas City Stock Yards, February 21, 1911. A small Tuesday run of cattle today, 10,000 head, is not performing up to expectations. Salesmen seem consistent in holding out for at least steady prices today, but buyers are making a slow market of it, and their bids were weak all day. It looks like the moderate total at all the markets this week with the single exception of Chicago, together with the seasonable action of the groundhog since Saturday, should have been enough to bring a rise. Buyers are talking about Lenten abstinence already. They count on muddy fed lots bringing in a lot of cattle later this week, or the first of next week. Then the tax return period begins March 1st, and is always counted on to swell receipts some, although the influence in that direction exerted by this event is largely imaginary. On the whole, it don't look like actions of buyers this week have much basis in reason, and it is doubtful if they stick to their position if favorable market conditions continue. Top steers today brought $6.25, and bulls of steers bring $5.70 to $6.15. Cows and heifers have been more scarce this week, and have held steady, quite a string of heavy cows above $5.00, and up to $5.35, and heifers mainly at $4.80 to $5.75, tops at $6.00, bulls $4.25 to $5.25, calves up to $8.25, stock steers $4.90 to $5.65, feeders $5.40 to $5.85. Buyers are said to be scouring the range country for material to put in Kansas pastures next summer. Lots of cattle from Old Mexico will find their way into Kansas this year, and it is reasonably certain that all the pastures will be full.

Hog receipts are very small today for the second day of the week, 7,000 head estimated early, but less than that number arrived. The market is slightly stronger, bulk $7.25 to $7.40, top $7.45. Heavy hogs came up into the running yesterday, and are only 10 cents under the leaders today. Paucity of offerings is the only thing that prevents axe wielding by the packers this week. A year ago this week prices were two dollars higher than now, and the run was heavier than it is this week. Supplies this week, however, are not representative, and the shortage will have to show up either later this week or the first of next week.

Sheep and lambs started out 10 cents higher today on an estimate of 7,000 head. Later the estimate was increased, and the final count stopped at 17,000 head. Prices eased off a little, though buyers were hungry, and looked with favor on the liberal run. Lambs sold freely at $6.10 to $6.25, heavy yearlings at $4.90, lights $5.25, wethers $4.60, ewes $4.35. Colorado is furnishing bulk of the stuff now, though the Kansas district around Wamego and St. Marys is well represented today.

To The Teachers

The Rural School examinations will be given March 25 and April 15.

The subjects given on March 25 will be orthography, penmanship, reading, geography, physiology and classics.

The subjects for April 15 will be arithmetic, grammar, Kansas history, U. S. history and civics.

Insist upon pupils taking the examination in any subject in the year in which it is completed.

Two sets of questions in classics will be given—one covering the work as outlined for 1909-10, the other covering the work of 1910-11. Give questions from the set they are best prepared upon, but not both.

Eva P. Jones,
County Superintendent.
